"A Thorough School"

THIS COLLEGE
being one of the younger Business Colleges of the West, combines the experience of the past with the New Century spirit of progress.

MODERN METHODS
prevail in every department. The greatest care is exercised to avoid educational ruts. All good new methods find ready acceptance here.

A VIGOROUS LIFE
permeates the school, quickening and inspiring every student and every teacher to higher effort.

A CONTAGIOUS SPIRIT OF WORK is found in our classrooms which has a remarkable power to encourage industry. The idler soon loses the respect of both teachers and students and must give way to make room for the hard worker.

THOROUGHNESS
of method and completeness of detail are the watchwords of our institution. The work of a student will not be accepted unless it is both thorough and complete; he must reach bottom and do it in a thorough, businesslike way.

THE FRUITS OF THOROUGHNESS are found in the great demand for our graduates. Business men have been quick to appreciate the idea for which this College stands—thoroughness—and as a result, we have each month many more applications for our graduates than we can possibly fill. No student worthy of our recommendation, will be long without employment.

THE GROWTH OF THE COLLEGE
in a few years from one student to over 100, and from one small room, by repeated enlargements of quarters to the entire front of one floor of a large office building, is good evidence of real merit.

LEEK GEORGE W., 20 O'Farrell

GEORGE W. LEEK
DENTIST

Exclusive owner and user of the Dental Electric Vibrator for Painless Dentistry. All other electric appliances for painlessly extracting teeth are intrusions on my patent or absolutely worthless. I received eight first prizes at Mechanics' and State Fairs for best dentistry. Bridge-work, crowns, fillings, teeth without plates, and flesh-colored plates. Painless fillings and extractions guaranteed when desired. Prices as low as the lowest and work better than the best. No students or snide dentists employed. Personally attend to each operation. Examination free.
